Thanksgiving Table Prayer

Great Creator God, giver of all good things, we rejoice in Your abundant blessings. For family and friends, for food and drink, for hearth and home, and for all Your gifts, we praise and thank You.

We ask your blessing on those among us who are hungry and thirsty, who are homeless and alone, who need Your guiding hand and depend on Your tender mercies. May we share our many blessings with them, for they are our brothers and sisters, Your beloved children.

Gracious God, Giver of all that is good, we gratefully raise our hearts and voices to You on this day of Thanksgiving and always. Amen.

Gospel Reflection: Luke 23:35-43

As we celebrate the last Sunday of the Church year, Luke's Gospel leaves us with a "holy picture" to remember and cherish. It is a crucifixion scene. Above the head of Jesus, a sign proclaims: "This is the king of the Jews." The soldiers and most of the crowd think that the sign is a bad joke. But a criminal who is hanging in a cross next to Jesus senses the truth about him. "Remember me when you enter upon your reign," he prays. And the King responds: "This day you will be with me in paradise."

"Greater love than this no one has, that he give up his life for his friend." We might say: "Greater love than this no king has, that he give up his life for his people." This is the kind of king Jesus was and is. Now he is a Risen King, and we rise with him each day - every time we respond to grace in our lives, every time we imitate our king by overcoming evil with good. What can you do this week to be like Christ the King in love, in forgiveness, in generosity, in works of peace and justice?

All our bills are paid to date, but our reserves are low, not enough to see us through the winter. On November 7, Fevig delivered 200 gallons of heating oil for the church furnace. The cost was $968. Winter is just beginning. Thursday is Thanksgiving Day. One way you can express your gratitude to God for blessings received is to give a gift to St. Anne's, earmarked for fuel. Envelopes are available at the entrance. Thank you and God bless you!

Feast of Christ the King

We celebrate the feast of Christ the King this Sunday, remembering that our king's life ended on a cross. Today we worship this wounded and resurrected God, who promises us a place in Paradise.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

1st Reading: 2 Samuel 5:1-3

Because David was so loved as a leader, the elders of all the tribes anointed him king of Israel at Hebron. King David shepherded the people from then on.

Responsorial Psalm 122:1-2, 3-4, 4-5

Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

I rejoiced because they said to me,
"We will go up to the house of the LORD."
And now we have set foot within your gates, O Jerusalem.

Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

Jerusalem, built as a city
with compact unity.
To it the tribes go up,
the tribes of the LORD.

Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

According to the decree for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of the LORD.
In it are set up judgment seats,
seats for the house of David.

Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

2nd Reading: Colossians 1:12-20

God's Son brought the people into the reign of forgiveness and love. He heads the body, the church, and has primacy in all things, making peace through the blood of his cross.

Gospel Verse:

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come!

Gospel: Luke 23:35-43

The soldiers made fun of Jesus on the cross, offered him bitter wine, told him to save himself if he was the Christ, and told him to put an inscription over his head: "This is the King of the Jews."

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

2023 Extension Society Calendars are available at our church entrances. Please take one home today with our best wishes for a blessed new year.

"I am grateful for what I am and have.
My Thanksgiving is perpetual."

Henry David Thoreau

Today, speak your gratitude out loud. Say thank you.
Pray over your meals aloud. Share your blessings in a conversation with a friend. We pray that you and yours much to be grateful for on Thanksgiving Day.
