Summer Prayer

by Jim Manney

Father, Creator of all, thank You for summer!

Thank you for the warmth of the sun
and the increased daylight.

Thank You for the beauty I see all around me
and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy Your creation.

Thank You for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family,
and for the more casual pace
of the summer season.

Draw me closer to You this summer.

Teach me how I can pray,
no matter where I am or what I am doing.

Warm my soul with the awareness of Your presence
and light my path with Your Word and Counsel.

As I enjoy Your creation,
create in me a pure heart
and a hunger and a thirst for You. Amen.

Gospel Reflection: Read Mark 6:30-34

If you have ever had the frustrating experience of being interrupted while you were trying to tell about some wonderful adventure, you will understand how the apostles feel in this gospel story. They have just returned from their first missionary journey. They want to tell Jesus all about it. He leads them off to a quiet place where they can tell their stories. But the crowds follow them because they are hungry for Jesus' teaching and his healing touch.

Seeing the crowd, Jesus is moved to respond to them. They are like sheep that have been scattered. Out of love, the Good Shepherd calls them together and guides them. The apostles' adventure stories will have to wait.

When others make demands on you at times when you need to rest, what is your usual response? What can we learn from the example of Jesus in this gospel story? How will you try to follow that example in your daily life?

We remember in our prayers...

2021 Tekakwitha Conference Update

Regretfully, we will not be participating in the Kateri Tekakwitha Conference (July 22-24), which is a virtual event this year. We did not get our group together and our registration in on time. Registration is now closed. We will work on renewing our group which has not met in a year due to Covid and on seeking other faith formation opportunities.

Sheep without a Shepherd

Based on Mark 6:30-34

When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things. (Mk 6:34)

World Day for Grandparents and Elderly

Pope Francis has established throughout the Church the celebration of the World Day for Grandparents and Elderly beginning in 2021 on the fourth Sunday of July, near the liturgical memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus.

The theme chosen by Pope Francis for this first commemoration is “I am with you always” (Mt 28:20).

This text expresses the closeness of the Lord and the Church to every older person, especially in these challenging times of the Covid-19 pandemic.

The theme, “I am with you always” is also “a promise of closeness and hope that young and old can mutually share,” notes the press release.

Not only are grandchildren and youths invited to be present in the lives of older people, but older people and grandparents also have a mission of evangelization, proclamation and prayer, and of encouraging young people in their faith.

Pope Francis’ concern for the elderly is one of his frequent themes in his speeches and travels. Not only does he advocate for the elderly and their concerns (for example, by decrying the growing push for euthanasia). But he also notes how important the elderly are for society today and the future of the social fabric.

NOTE: We will bless grandparents at our Masses next weekend, July 24-25.

Fr. Greg Gallagher, OMI, joins us.

Fr. Gregory Gallagher, OMI, has been assigned by the provincial superior of the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate to our White Earth mission team. He arrived on Thursday, July 15, and will serve in the position held by Fr. Dan Nassaney, OMI, who retired in May for medical reasons. Fr. Greg has much experience in pastoral ministry and in leadership. We give him our warmest welcome.

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

1st Reading: Jeremiah 23:1-6

The Lord was angry and promised to punish the shepherds who misled and scattered the flock. The Lord God would gather the flock and appoint new shepherds to care for it.

Responsorial Psalm 23:1-6

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

In verdant pastures he gives me repose;
beside restful waters he leads me;
he refreshes my soul.

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

He guides me in right paths
for his name's sake.

Even though I walk in the dark valley
I fear no evil; for you are at my side
with your rod and your staff
that give me courage.

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

You spread the table before me
in the sight of my foes;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
for years to come.

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

2nd Reading: Ephesians 2:13-18

In Christ, we are reconciled and united with each other and with God. Christ Jesus came to announce the good news. Through him we come in one Spirit to the Father.

Alleluia. Alleluia.

My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord;
I know them and they follow me.

Alleluia. Alleluia.

Gospel: Mark 6:30-34

The disciples returned from work and went with Jesus to a quiet place to rest. Crowds followed. Jesus took pity on them, "for they are like sheep without a shepherd.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

"When I think of God, my heart is so full of joy that the notes leap and dance
as they leave my pen."

Franz Joseph Haydn, composer
