Gospel Reflection: Read John 6:1-15

When large crowds gather, exciting and unexpected things can happen. That's the way it was when Jesus went up on a mountain shortly before the Passover feast. He had no idea that a crowd of five thousand would soon gather around him.

They were determined to hear him speak and to see what great signs he might work. Unlike his disciples, Jesus was not concerned about how this huge crowd was to be fed on a few loaves and fishes.

In familiar actions we recognize, Jesus took the bread, broke it, blessed it and gave it to his guests. When the crowd realized that everyone had been fed and there were still leftovers, they were astounded. They wanted to carry Jesus off on their shoulders and make him their king.

Look back at the story. How does it encourage you to act when you feel that you have little to offer to those in need?

We remember in our prayers...

A Message from Bishop Pates

Dear Friends:

This coming week, the Diocese of Crookston will be making a public announcement about a campaign initiative called "The Perfect Fit," which has been undertaken to raise funds for the purchase of the Mount Saint Benedict Campus in Crookston. The sisters' facility has modern accommodations, offices, and a chapel which will become the diocesan Pastoral Center and a retreat facility to deepen the faith of Catholics in parishes and schools across northwest Minnesota. It is my belief that this is an extraordinary life-giving moment for the Diocese. You will soon have the opportunity to learn more and participate in this endeavor. A public announcement with additional details is forthcoming.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Rev. Richard E. Pates
Apostolic Administrator
Diocese of Crookston

Sts. Ann and Joachim

It has been traditionally held that Saint Ann is the patron of pregnant women, mothers, and housewives and Saint Joachim is the patron saint of fathers and grandfathers.

A Parent's/Grandparent's Prayer

Saint Ann and Saint Joachim, you know my concerns as a parent [and grandparent]. So many dangers threaten young people today. Will those children I love get a good education? Will they find fulfilling jobs? Will they follow the ways of your Grandson?

Because I am worried about the future of my children [and grandchildren], I entrust them to you. Take good care of them. Keep them healthy and always on the right path, faithful to God's commandments and love. If they have strayed from His teachings and Church, please help them to return.

Do for them what you did so well for your daughter, Mary. Teach them how to find true happiness in loving the Lord and their neighbor.

My hope and prayer is based on the goodness of God. I trust in Him to protect my children [and grandchildren] whom I love more than myself. Please intercede for them and for all the children of the world. Amen.

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

United with Christians all over the world, we acknowledge one Lord, one faith, one baptism, and one God as our Father. We worship as one family, and pray for greater charity and love among all the baptized.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

1st Reading: 2 Kings 4:42-44

Elisha was brought twenty barley loaves, which he set before a crowd of one thousand. All ate, and there was plenty of food left over.

Responsorial Psalm 145:10-11, 15-16, 17-18

The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD,
and let your faithful ones bless you.
Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom
and speak of your might.

The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The eyes of all look hopefully to you,
and you give them their food in due season;
you open your hand
and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is just in all his ways
and holy in all his works.
The LORD is near to all who call upon him,
to all who call upon him in truth.

The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

2nd Reading: Ephesians 4:1-6

Paul called the Ephesians to a life of humility, patience and gentleness. He said, "Preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit."

Alleluia. Alleluia.

A great prophet has risen in our midst.
God has visited his people.

Alleluia. Alleluia.

Gospel: John 6:1-15

Many people pressed around Jesus. Seeing they were hungry, he took bread and fish, blessed them, and gave them out. When all had eaten, the fragments filled twelve baskets.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

O God, giver and sustainer of life,
in this time of need send us the gift of rain,
so that we may receive the fruits of the earth
for our benefit and for your praise;
through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.
